THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 1888.

ANOTHER million-foot-a-day gas well has been shot at Tiffin, O.

STATE SENATOR TAYLOR, of Cleveland, denies the boisterous charge of a Cincinnati conference.

The old Board of Directors of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh railroad has been re-elected for the ensuing year.

The state of Alabama has let out all its convict on ten-year contracts to work in the coal mines near Birmingham.

The Democratic legislative caucus at Frankfort, Ky., has nominated Senator Beck for reelection. He had no opposition.

The Philadelphia carpet-weaving manufacturers will shut down on February 10 on account of the large stock on hand.

ARTHUR O'CONNOR, the Irish Parliamentary delegate, who has been lecturing in this country, has sailed for his home in Ireland.

W. P. LEBRON, a Gurnsey county convict, was caught in a bet in the bolt shop of the Ohio Penitentiary, and met a horrible death.

AMMI BALDWIN, late Cashier of the Fidelity Bank, died of paralysis, at his home on Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, on Thursday morning.

The orders for Senator Sherman's speech, delivered in the Senate in criticism of the President's message, have reached over fifty thousand.

CHARLES SUMNER is credited with first using the word "whitewash" to signify an exonerating report, such as the term now so universally indicates.

RICHARD DARNELL was severely gored by Rev. J. F. Freidrich, near Urbana, O., for disturbing religious services and using insulting language.

THERE are forty iron furnaces on the line of the Reading Railroad, which will be compelled to shut down unless the miners' strike is speedily settled.

The natural gas companies of the Ohio Valley, between Pittsburgh and Wheeling, have established a natural gas trust to secure an equitable adjustment of prices.

A SPAN in the new central viaduct, now being constructed at Cleveland, fell on Thursday a distance of eighty-five feet, killing two persons and injuring five others.

TWO ENGINES collided on Friday at Cambridge, Ohio, on the tracks of the Cleveland and Marietta Railroad, killing Conductor Pack and fatally injuring Fireman Rennie.

GOVERNOR OLIVER AMES and Lieutenant Governor J. Q. A. Brackett, of Massachusetts, were sworn in and qualified in the presence of the Legislature and many distinguished guests on Thursday.

For the first time since the construction of the old cathedral at St. Augustine, Fla., 200 years ago, the customary celebration of midnight mass on Christmas eve was omitted this season.

In the U. S. Court at Providence, R. I., Mme. Janaschek was given a verdict against Henry Bull, Jr., of Newport, for $12,000 damages on account of injuries sustained by a fall in defendant's hotel.

The New York Press says that before marriage girls often think men all soul. After linking their lot with one they find they are all stomach. That's all right. They merely adopt the Chinese idea that the stomach is the soul.

GEORGE HOWARD, aged ten years, living near Xenia, Ohio, after a severe whipping by his father for meddling with a shot-gun, escaped from the house and was subsequently found almost frozen to death under a barn amongst some swine.

MINING men of Montana are becoming alarmed over the fact that a vast majority of the public land in the Territory is being classed by U. S. Surveyor as agricultural, thus allowing it to be claimed by the Northern Pacific Railroad under their grant.

F. D. MUSEY, the well known newspaper correspondent, through his attorney, Gen. C. H. Grosvenor, has filed a petition in the Franklin County Common Pleas Court against Mrs. Annie Mussey for divorce, alleging wilful absence for more than three years last past. Mrs. M. is a daughter of ex-Gov. Foster.

Five petitions have been sent to Washington from various dressed beef and canning companies to the Interstate Commerce Commission. It is the beginning of a great lawsuit, involving millions of dollars in interest, which will be contested in the U. S. Supreme Court, and involve the constitutionality of the Inter-State law.

JUDGE PUGH has refused to grant the application of the defendants in the Columbus tally-sheet forgery cases for a continuance beyond January 23, the time which has been assigned for trial. Charles F. Blackburn, of Cincinnati, who had not appeared to plead to the indictment, presented himself in Court on Friday and gave bond for his appearance.

HIGGINS has resigned, but it is reported that he isn't resigned by any means.

A LARGE deposit of bituminous coal has been discovered near San Antonio, Texas.

Eighty thousand bushels of wheat were destroyed by fire at Jamestown, Dakota.

The banquet of the Boston Home Market Club to Senator Sherman has been set for January 26.

SNOW has fallen to the depth of two feet on the level in Upper Michigan and the storm still continues.

It is estimated that the cigar makers' strike in New York will embrace at least twelve thousand men.

The Terre Haute (Ind.) Police Commissioners have decided to open up the town to the gamblers and all-night saloons.

A WESTERN paper says that a man who recently died "passed into the eternal slumber in the rich, cool, sombre arms of death."

A MONUMENT has been erected in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati, to the memory of Chas. W. West, founder of the Art Museum.

GEN. BRAGO, of Wisconsin, is a candidate for the Mexican mission, but he denies that he is doing anything to further his interests in this direction.

PRESIDENT ANGELO, of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, says that the first law for the protection of animals was passed in Ireland.

It is estimated that for the past six years strikes have cost the country $16,000,000 a year. And the worst of it is they have not benefited even the men who engaged in them.

THE President wants the tariff taken off raw materials so as to give his English free trade message a chance. It is about the rawest material that we have seen for some time.—N. Y. Tribune.

ST. JOHN advances the claim that he is not a "natural-born fool." No such suspicion is entertained. He can summon the Democratic party to witness that he is as smart a man at a bar as any of their Third-party employees.

SPEAKER CARLISLE puts Mr. Clements at the head of the Civil Service Reform Committee—the man who reported a bill last year to repeal the Civil Service law. This is a good specimen of Democratic sincerity in this direction.

THE Indianapolis Journal furnishes the following comparison of prices in woolen goods that President Cleveland ought to have seen before he issued his proclamation in favor of free wool and free trade in everything else.

CONGRESSMAN BRECKINRIDGE, of Kentucky, who Speaker Carlisle has placed upon the Committee of Ways and Means, is the enthusiastic free trader who declared at the Boston dinner that "almost all the articles, if not every article, on the tax list has been put there by private interest to secure private gain, and is kept there because the combination can't agree whose fleece shall be sheared."

The New York Press says that before marriage girls often think men all soul. After linking their lot with one they find they are all stomach. That's all right. They merely adopt the Chinese idea that the stomach is the soul.

REVELL.

The day-star shines upon the hill. The valleys in the shadows sleep! In wood and thicket, dark and still, My comrades lie in slumber deep. Far in the east a phantom gray Stands slowly up the night's black path, And herald of the coming day, The distant tower's soft notes call— "I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up in the morning; I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up at all."

A thought of motion on the sound— As though the forest caught the breath, And belted sleepers on the ground! Move restlessly, like life in death, And slumbering echoes, here and there, Resound as the chambering air. And louder on the morning air Ring out the cheery bugle notes— "I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up in the morning; I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up at all."

And as the thrilling strains prolong, Flashes into rose and gold the day, And springing up with shout and song, Each soldier gleams march or fray, The wooded vale, or wooded ascent hill, Where camp fires gleam and shadows fall, Leader and clearer, cheerly still, Rings out the merry bugle notes— "I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up in the morning; I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up at all."

And as the thrilling strains prolong, Flashes into rose and gold the day, And springing up with shout and song, Each soldier gleams march or fray, The wooded vale, or wooded ascent hill, Where camp fires gleam and shadows fall, Leader and clearer, cheerly still, Rings out the merry bugle notes— "I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up in the morning; I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up, I can't get 'em up at all."
